Matlock Wins Decision Over Dutch in Feature: Other Events Please Fans

In one of the best headlines yet staged at the Wasatch Athletic club, Leo Matlock of California was last night awarded a decision over Dutch of Salt Lake at the end of their six-round contest. This battle was acted just as it was billed and was replete with slam-bang action from bell to bell. Both men mixed willingly, but the experience of the veteran Matlock was a stumbling block for the youngster. Despite this handicap the Salt Lake youth put up a wonderful exhibition and won the admiration of the fans.

In the first two rounds Matlock had his man covering up on many occasions and for awhile it appeared as if the Salt Laker would take the count. Dutch, however, would come back and bring the fans to their feet.

The first two rounds were Matlock's without any hesitancy, while the third was even. In this canto the two men slugged each other for fully two-thirds of the round, each drawing blood.

In the fourth round after Matlock had forced Dutch to cover up and after he had rushed him to the ropes, Dutch showed another burst of speed and landed a left hook on Matlock's jaw which sent the California scrapper to the mat for the count of eight. This round went to Dutch.

The fifth round was evenly contested while the final round went to Matlock. In the final canto Matlock had his man in many tight places during the contest but the Salt Laker managed to stay the limit. The judges, Al Bestmark, Seth Thomas and W. B. McBride, rendered the decision in favor of Matlock, which met with the approval of the fans.

Slam-bang was again in evidence in the battle between the Canadian Kid and Gus Boyle of Ogden. In this battle the first round was rather tame, neither man being willing to start the fight but the remaining three rounds were replete with action. In the second and third rounds the Canadian Kid had Boyle covering up on several occasions and administered considerable punishment. In the final round the two men fought on even terms with give and take raling. A draw decision proved popular.

As an added event to the card, Bob Lewis and Jack White were matched. Lewis won this contest in the second round with a right hook to the jaw and a left to the stomach.

Kid Cuckoo of Ogden was awarded a decision over Bill Pfister of Salt Lake in their four-round bout. Although Pfister outwitted his opponent many points, a local battler was the aggressor throughout.

Kid Andrews added another knockout to his credit in the first round of his scrap with Guy Johnson. Johnson lasted just 25 seconds in this battle, the riches of the Kid being too much for the visitor.

In this event, however, Andrews came near taking the count also. After he had delivered his two punches he bumped his head with the comments with the result that he was dazed and came near falling to the mat.

The comedy event on the card proved a riot to the fans. Jack Sharp and Gus Brennan furnished the fun in this contest, the two men dancing about the ring occasionally getting in a punch or two. Their tactics, however, kept the fans in an uproar.

Willie Mix of Ogden won the curtain raiser in the first round of his scheduled four-round bout with Chas. Oliver of Salt Lake. Mix mixed from the start and sent his man out after one minute of fighting.

MICHIGAN TO BAR TITLE RING MATCHES

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., March 5.—Governor Alex J. Groesbeck will prevent the title boxing matches in Michigan in the future, such as the Dempsey-Miske fight here last Labor day, according to a letter from the governor to Rev. Paul Yound, a local pastor. The letter was in reply to the pastor's protest against the proposal to bring Jack Johnson here for a bout next summer.

The governor's letter said: "I have stated to the boxing commissioner that such fights will no longer be tolerated in this state. I propose that both the letter and the spirit of the law pertaining to boxing exhibitions hereafter will be strictly observed."

The governor's letter was taken here to mean that Jack Dempsey will not engage in a championship fight in Michigan.

Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons has been known to favor such a match in the state during the coming season.

UTAH CAPTURES FINAL CONTEST

State Intercollegiate Title Goes to State University By 29 to 16 Count

The University of Utah hoopers captured the state intercollegiate hoop title last night at Salt Lake by defeating the B. Y. U. hoopers of Provo 29 to 16 in the final game of the year.

At the half the score read 11 to 7 for Utah. In the second period Dunn was sent in the pivot position in place of Snow for the "Y." This change gave the team added life for a few minutes but the basket caging of the crimson forwards proved the undoing of the visitors and they were soon left in the rear.

Clutching and classy caging are the causes for the crimson victory. For Utah Dean, Romney and Harris were the bright stars while Brown and Swenson were the twinklers for the defeated five.

GIANT FANS EAGER TO HEAR "E-YAH" JENNINGS GO

(BY DEAN SNYDER.)

Giant fans will learn a new lingo this summer.

When Hughie Jennings screams his first "E-Yah" in his new home at the Polo Grounds they will get their first taste.

According to the handwriting on the wall John McGraw will fade out of the picture as a birdhouse manager after 17 years of service.

Jennings, for 15 years a Detroit drawing card, is to lead the team on the field.

His famous yell, "E-Yah! The 'em, Ty!" will be changed to "E-Yah! Frick 'em, Frick!"

PICKING THE BLADES.

The blades of grass he used to pick at the Bengal park will grow again. The coaching boxes at the Polo Grounds will make the park lawn mow useful only as an ornament.

At Detroit Jennings was known as an eccentric manager.

His famous "E-Yah" and grass-eating tactics have amused thousands.

Jennings has become as much of a character in baseball as the frisky mark on a Louisville slugger bat.

To the average fan his screechings are crazy yells.

In reality they are condensed sentences and camouflaged signals.

"E-YAH!" YELL.

The "E-Yah" yell originated in the 1917 training camp of the Tigers at Macon, Ga., during an exhibition game with Cleveland.

Jennings had been yelling, "That's the way! That's the way!" until his throat was parched with the yell.

It was easier to yell "Thassaway" and was quicker when timely signals meant a stolen base.

For variation he tried it "Sa-way-ah," which relieved his coaching bronchial tubes still more.

But at Macon he couldn't get the thing—the yell that couldn't be improved on—"E-Yah!"

It had the pep, it had the swing, rhythm and everything.

QUICK SUCCESS.

Jennings has gone through both the dark and halcyon days as a manager.

He came from Baltimore in 1907 and took the Tigers from a second division club to the top of the first league.

The next year and the next he won pennants.

His team was never a great playing club. It was terrific hitting that won for them.

Backlog weak pitching practically all the time, the "E-Yah" pep spurred his men on to hit their heads off.

In later years he seemed to lose his ability in inspiring his men and they have finished poorly.

GLEASON CONFIDENT AS WHITE SOX LEAVE

CHICAGO, Mar. 5.—William "Kid" Gleason, manager of the Chicago White Sox, today left for the south with his players for the training camp at Waxahachie, Texas, to commence the task of rebuilding the club broken up following the baseball season last year.

In the party are four catchers, six pitchers, an infielder and an outfielder.

Gleason was greatly pleased with the deal announced Friday in which Harry Hooper, veteran Boston outfielder, joined his club in exchange for John Collins and Harry Liebold, outfielders.

"Say fellows, you don't know how happy I am to get Hooper on my ball club," Gleason said. "He's a real ball player. He'll be given a chance to make good."

Hooper who is in California, has been notified to join the club at the training camp. The second squad will leave next week.

MONTREAL WORKING TO GET BIG FIGHT

MONTREAL, Que., Mar. 4.—C. F. Graham, representing a group desiring to stage the Dempsey-Carpentier championship match will leave for New York to confer with Tex Rickard.

"There is a good prospect of Dempsey and Carpentier coming to Montreal on July 2," Graham said.

It was intimated here that the local promoters would be aided financially by persons across the border to an amount sufficient to build an arena and to guarantee Rickard against loss.

THE CRAZY QUILT

By GENE HEARN

Hughie Jennings and One of His "E-Yah" Poses.

The change will give Jennings a time to being a magnate and race-track owner, will be glad to let his mantle slip to willing shoulders.

And New York is eager to learn the "E-Yah" language which only Jennings speaks.

BECKER PRAISED BY COAST STARS

Newspaper Gives Ogden Man Due Credit for Ability With Shot Gun

That Gus Becker of Ogden performed brilliantly at the traps at Los Angeles under the auspices of the Vernon Gun club is evidenced from the following taken from the Los Angeles Examiner:

G. L. Becker, who came from Ogden, Utah, to show the best how it's done back there, will leave for home with a remarkable record in the handicaps.

He shot from 20 and 21 yards and shot 97 per cent. In the first event he broke 49. In the second his score was 46. Then in the third he broke 50 straight and yesterday he scored 49.

In the first handicap, his score was tied by J. F. Doods, but in the second shoot off, Becker won. Yesterday his 49 score was also tied. Bob Role, the pump making king of Vernon and Grant Adams each breaking that number.

The handicap yesterday was for the Tufts-Lyon trophy, and we'll say it was a pip. The club rules said that no shooter would be allowed more than one trophy in the handicap events.

This naturally and automatically eliminated Becker and it was left to Role and Adams to fight it out.

Only one shoot off was necessary and Role copped the milk shaker, 23 to Adams' 22. Again, we must say that it was some tournament and some shooters, but as Bruner declared last night, it is only the pioneer, the blazer and next year will see even a better and bigger one.

MEUSEL CAN STEAL 'EM.

LOS ANGELES, March 5.—Bob Meusel has shown results of his major league training in exhibition games here. While he isn't as fast as Ty Cobb he has made a "rep" as a base stealer.

VERNON TIGERS ARE TRAINING AT HOME

LOS ANGELES, Calif., March 5.—Vernon club, 1920 champion of the Pacific Coast Baseball league, is one of the few teams in the country doing its spring training on its home grounds, Minter Park, Vernon, a Los Angeles suburb.

But, unlike other clubs, it seldom plays at home, so to train there is as good for the Tigers as Pasadena is for the Chicago Cubs or Lake Elsinore for the Los Angeles coast team.

Most of Vernon's games are played at Washington park, Los Angeles.

When spring training started for Vernon, the following players were ordered to report:

Pitchers—Ernest Shore, from New York Americans; "Whizzer" Dell, Walter Smallwood, Byron Houck, Arthur Fromme, Peter Schneider, "Buck" Cross, Phoenix semi-pro; Frank Sheltenback, Robert McDrew, from New York Americans; William Mitchell, Elmer Hill, from Yakima, Wash. club of Pacific International league; "Slim" Love, from San Francisco Coast club.

Catchers—Harry Hannah, from New York Americans; Patrick Murphy and Eddie Kenna, Los Angeles semi-pro.

First base—Hamilton Hyatt.

Second base—Robert Fisher and Charles Gorman.

Third base—J. Carlisle Smith.

Shortstop—Roy Corhan, San Francisco Coast league player.

Utility infielder—A. Gunther, Santa Monica semi-pro.

Outfield—Ford ("Scotty") Alcock, Hugh High, Chester Chadbourne, Thomas Long, Frank ("Stumpy") Edington, Gielch, New York Americans, Harry O'Brien, Santa Monica high school.

Of these players Houck may be placed on the retired list, as he has become a moving picture camera operator and it is said, likes his work better than baseball; Shellenback and next year will see even a better and bigger one.

No effective anesthetic was known before 1846.
